ANTARCTIC MYSTERIES.

A Region Where Sammer Never Smiles and no Explorer Goes-

The Antarctic is a region of eternal winter and unmelting snow, whereso far as is known-not a single plant finds life within the circle and where never a living creature roams. The zoologist is not drawn to the southern circle as he is to the northern, and yet the attractions for him are great, because they have all the charms of the unknown. It is believed that only a few of the hardiest birds build in a few of the sheltered corners of the Antarctic, but who knows?

awful solitudes may not be revealed the mystery of the life of the fur seal when he vanishes from the waters of the North Pacific? Or that on some Antarctic continent or island may not be found the priceless remnant of the great auk tribe? We know not, at any rate, what riches or poverty may be there until we go to see. And no-body has yet gone to see—beyond the withdrawal by Tammany of General body has yet gone to see-beyond the Ir nge.

It is a curious fact that no one has ever wintered within the Antarctic many as have been the expeditions and ships' companies which, computsorily or voluntarily, have wintered in the Arctic There has been no need to do so for there has been no possible goal beyond, such as India, which first led our mariners into the Arctic; no scientific romance such as has characterized the quest for the

CUMMINGS PROTESTS.

New Yoak, Oct. 24.—Vesterday was a day of conference among the Democratic leaders with a view to straightening out the tangles resulting from the nomination of factional Democratic congressional candidates in this city and Brooklyn. Sepator Hill addressed himself to this task and had the energetic aid of Senator Fanikner, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, who came over from Washington. The latter was the active mediator in the negotiations. Private conferences were New York, Oct. 24.-Yesterday was tiations. All details have not yet been arranged. It is known, however, that Tammany has agreed to withdraw its candidates Dan Sickles in the Tenth and J. J. Walsh in the Eighth. Dewitt Warner, Robert Monroe and ex-Congressman Dunphy are mentioned as possible Grace candidates.

General Sickles was at hendquarters and it was stated that he was willing to make any personal sacrifice to aid Senator Hill's candidacy for governor. The opinion was expressed by head-quarters people that Walsh would be more difficult to deal with. To secomplish the purpose aimed at, it was proposed to transfer Amos J. made:

"Since the advent of the present administration judgments have been rendered against the United States and the Indian tribes amounting, with those left over from the last adminiswas to certify such judgments to the treasury for payment. A question has now arisen upon the proper construction of this appropriation act, and the treasury department seems to be in doubt as to whether the judgments should be paid in the order in which they are rendered or in the order in which they were certified for payment by the attorney general. The law directed the secretary of the interior to certify as to what funds th re are belonging to the various Indian tribes which can be used for the payment of such judgments, as the funds of the Indians are primarily liable under the act for such payment. This matter has been referred by the secretary of the interior to the Indian commissioner for report, but owing to the inudeof the clerical force of the Indian bureau, it seems questionable when a report will be made. The practical effect of that is that these judgments, which it was the intention of congress to pay, and which it has in part provided for, will remain unusuid until after congress convenes in December, when some special legislation will probably be had. "Many of the persons in whose favor the judgments were rendered are old and infirm, and a great num-ber of them have died since then. If there is any class of citizens whose appeals for justice should be heard and responded to, it is those people who have risked their lives and lost who have risked their lives and lost their property for the good of the na-tion. All Officers Enlisted for Extermination of Robbers.

WAGONER, Ind. Ter., Oct. 24.-The little village of Watova, Ir.d. Ter., some fifty miles west of here on the K. and A. V. railroad was raided and robbed last night about 9 o'clock by a band of outlaws. They robbed the two stores and postoffice of all the money and valuables, taking considerable clothing from the stores. Postoffice Inspector Houk went there on the early morning train, taking some deputy marshals, and was soon on the trail of the bandits. Three of the robbers took breakfast near the scene of the robbery and, after resting their horses a short time, resumed their flight, coming toward this place. Marshals are on their trail and pressing them closely. At first it was supposed to be another crime added to the Cook gang's list of depredations, but at 3 o'clock vesterday afternoon Deputy Marshal L P. Lawson, who has been shadowing the Cook gang, came in and reported the outlaws camped near this place on the Verdigris river. He at once raised a posse of fifteen men to attack them, but up to this hour, nothing has been heard from them. That an end will be put to the depre-dations of this gang is almost an as-sured fact. Chief Harris of the Cherokee nation has offered a reward of $500 for the capture of Bill Cook, the leader, dead or alive. All of the light horse guards and all Indian police have been summoned for duty, and all United States marshals of the territory, including some special men, have been put on the trail. In addition to these are the special officers of the Missouri Pacific railway and the Pacific and American express companies, making a total of between 500 and 600 men ready to commence a concerted action against the outlaws to-morrow morning. General Superintendent Peck of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railway has taken up temporary headquarters at this place and will supervise the movements of that company's officers. A committee was dispatched to Washington, last night by Superin-tendent Peck and United States Marshal Crump of Fort Smith, Ark, to simply showing their joy at being again joined by their old captain, Jim Cook, who made his escape from the guards at Tablequah Sunday night.
